

Cultural Heritage: An inclusive Path for participation and exchange in Europe

Results from Greece

Students' questionnaire

- 58 students (31 girls and 27 boys) at the age of 11-12 years old completed the questionnaire.

Let's see their answers:

Sex

1. At my school I often participate in activities of my interest

2a. At my school I play with any of the children of the class

- never
- rarely
- frequently

2b. I play only with children of my homeland

2c. I play with boys and girls

3. At my school I often cooperate with other children for a common assignment

4. I like coming to school every day

5. There are some difficulties when playing with other children

6. In my class I take some responsibilities

6. In my school I take some responsibilities

8. The school often plans visits at museums, theater, archeological sites e.t.c.

9. Have you visited any archeological site, any art exhibition or concert during the last three months?

10. Do you watch something interesting on T.V. even if it is not in your mother tongue?

11. At school we often use stories, electronic games, stage play, photos, videos, dances, to learn about our cultural heritage

12. I'm generally happy when I come to school

- All 5 children that answered “NO” at the statement “I’m generally happy when I come to school” marked the answer “Other” in question 13.

13. I am not happy when I come to school because:

- I feel fear
- I have language difficulties
- I have no friends
- Other  5

Most of the students wrote down:

- Akropolis and
  - White Tower of Thessaloniki
- as cultural heritage monuments of Greece and
- Eiffel tower
  - Big Ben and
  - Stonehenge
- as cultural heritage monuments of Europe.

